Whig and American Meeting.

Pursuant to previous notice, a meeting of the Whig and American party of Loudoun assembled at Leesburg, on Tuesday, the 10th instant, when Col. R. L. WRIGHT was called to the Chair, and T. W. WHITE appointed

On motion of Col. Wm. Fulton, a commitee of five was appointed by the Chair, to iraw resolutions expressive of the sense of

Lynch, Col. Hamilton Rogers, Asa Jackson, nd N. Berkeley. The committee returned the following preamble and resolutions as the result of their deliberations, which were unanimously adop-

WHEREAS, the Democratic party of the State of Virginia have selected their standard bearers, and are endeavoring to marshal their forces to the support of their nominees, giving the opposition a carnest of zeal worthy of imitation; and
WHEREAS, the call for the re-organization of the Whig party, not only in the "Old Dominion," but throughout the length and breadth of these United States, in order to stay the prevailing oppression despotism in requiring vassal submission to party rules and party dictation, whether that party be right or wrong-condemning, at one time, a man because he was supposed to entertain, in some remote period of the past, certain obnoxious opin ions, and supporting and applauding another, holdions, and supporting and applauding another, noiding, very recently, the very same opinions, simply upon party considerations. Principles, like the eternal truths of God, never vary. The Whigs, when led by their acknowledged Champion in the days of '40 and '44, were in the right—that right now acknowledged by the President of the United States, in recommending to Congress the two most important and cherished measures known to the party, viz: Internal Improvements and a Protec-party, viz: Internal Improvements and a Profec-tive Tariff. Therefore, Resolved, That we most heartily concur in the recommendation to re-organize the Whig party, not only in the State of Virginia, but throughout the United States, that we may unitedly battle for Whig principles, and, by the blessing of God, secure Whig triumphs; and though we may seem "crushed" by the wild and overpowering fanaticism of Democratic rule, we will still "try" to save our country for our country's sake.

Resolved, That we most cordially approve of holding a Whig Convention in the city of Richmond on the 10th of February next, for the purpose of selecting suitable candidates for the offices f Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney

Resolved, That ten Delegates be appointed from each precinct in this county to represent the Whig party in the proposed Convention; and that any Whig or Whigs from this county who may happen to be in the City of Richmond, and may desire to participate in the proceedings of said Convention, he, or they are hereby authorized to do so, as a delegate, or delegates, from this county.

On motion, the Chair was ordered to appoint the delegates, recommended by the committee, which when announced, were as follows:

JUDGE FIELD,-We noticed, some days WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15, 1859 .- There tion was offered by Mr. Aiken, and referred to since, a paragraph going the round of the papers to the effect that Judge R. H. Field would not be a candidate for re-election in this Circuit. Doubting the correctness of the report, and unwilling, therefore, to give further currency to it, until satisfied of its truth, we addressed a note to Judge Field, now in Richmond, enclosing the paragraph in question. In answer we received the following note, which settles the matter authoritatively:
